

Jeff King
Chairman
Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce
777 Taylor St. Ste. 900
Fort Worth, TX 76102

Jeff King is Managing Director with J.P. Morgan in Fort Worth. His team of wealth management professionals specializes in investment management, estate planning, trust administration, and private banking.

In addition to his current position as Chairman of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, Jeff is Vice Chairman of Cook Children's Medical Foundation, he is a Trustee of the Van Cliburn Foundation, and is a Director of the Fort Worth Zoo, the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra, and the United Way of Tarrant County. He has previously served as Chairman of the Fort Worth Convention and Visitor's Bureau, Chairman of Fort Worth Sister Cities International, Chairman of the Board of Stewards of University Christian Church, Vice Chairman of the Fort Worth Zoning Commission, Vice Chairman of the Fort Worth Transportation Authority (The "T"), and as Director of the Fort Worth Opera, the Fort Worth Public Library Foundation, and the Texas Boys' Choir.

Jeff holds a B.B.A. in Finance and Real Estate from Texas Christian University.